ABSTRACT

This cumulative index merges information on 8,372 reference books and CD-ROMs that appeared in ARBA (American Reference Books Annual) from 1995-99. The first section is an author/title index. Entries contain the author's name or title of the reference work with ARBA year and entry number. The second section is a subject index that uses terms based on the Library of Congress Subject Headings. Each subject entry lists titles with year and entry number; cross-references are included.
